MORRISVILLE TO SEEK P. W. A. FUNDS
FOR SEWER SYSTEM

Councilmanic Committee To Meet P. W. A. Officials
This Week

WANT 100% GRANT
Borough Unable to Finance Project Itself, It Is Stated

MORRISVILLE, July 29.—Common Council will send a committee to Harrisburg this week to meet officials of the P. W. A. for the purpose of endeavoring to secure funds for the erection of a sewage system here and alterations and improvements to the filtration plant.

The sewage system will cost, it is estimated, $350,000, and an effort is to be made to get a 100% grant for this work because the borough is not able financially to borrow enough money legally to pay the usual 55% of the cost. It will also be pointed out that the residents of the borough would not be able to carry the burden even if it were possible to borrow enough money for the work. Another point which will be stressed is the demand of the State Board of Health that the borough do something in the matter of sanitation in the borough.

Installation of sewers here was advocated some years ago and at that time a preliminary survey was made by an engineering firm, but Council voted down the proposition when it was brought before that body, because it was felt that the residents could not stand the expense. Ten years or more before that the Council then in power had plans drawn for a sewage system, but even then it was postponed because of the expense.

The matter of alterations and improvements to the filtration system is also demanded by the State Board of Health and it is expected this work will really be carried out if the usual allotment is made by the Federal authorities. It is estimated the cost of this work will be about $50,000 and the government will pay 45% of this cost, at least. The improvement will include the building of additional filter beds and settling basins and also new pumps. It is held that because of the great amount of water used, the present filter beds are taxed to over-capacity.

Councilman John Bleasdale has suggested to Council that before the work proceeds on improvements to the present filter plant that a survey of the system be thoroughly investigated.
Some time ago Council had preliminary survey made as to well water, and while no tests were made, it was reported that such a supply would be feasible. The cost would be about the same as that of improving the filter plant. One objection some of the officials have to the well system is the recommendation that the present filter plant be kept and used as an auxiliary plant. They say the cost of operating the plant as it is, and then also using a well supply, would greatly increase the cost of operation.

Advise Mariners About
Removal of River Buoys

In a notice to mariners, N. C. Manyon, superintendent of lighthouses, reports the following about buoys in the Delaware river:

Above Philadelphia—Pennsylvania and New Jersey—Buoys to be moved about July 30 and August 1, 1935, to facilitate dredging operations.

Mud Island Buoy 16, to be moved 100 feet toward the Jersey shore from its present position.

feet toward the Pennsylvania shore from its present position.

Due to continuous dredging, for about 10 months, between Mud Island and Trenton, N. J., buoys in the vicinity of the dredges will be moved simultaneously with the progress of the dredging. Mariners should exercise caution in the use of floating aids when navigating in the vicinity of the dredges.

CATTLE BREEDERS OF 3 COUNTIES TO GATHER

Guernsey Breeders To Have Tri-County Field Day On Third of August

AT THE BOLTON FARM

The Guernsey cattle breeders of Berks, Bucks and Montgomery counties, for the purpose of closer co-operation, will hold their first annual Tri-County Field Day at Bolton Farm of Edgingham B. Morris, Emille, on Saturday, August 3rd, beginning at 11 a. m., d. s. t., to which all Guernsey breeders from the three counties and elsewhere, as well as owners of pure bred Guernseys, are invited.

After viewing the fine herd of Mr.
Morris, there will be a judging contest.
The judge will be J. P. Broadhurst, manager of the Locust Grove Dairies of Henry W. Leeds, Westville, N. J., who is known among Guernsey breeders to be a judge "as good as the best and better than the rest." The Bucks County Guernsey Breeders' Association will present a lovely silver cup to the woman or man with the best score in placing eight cows for production. There will be judging classes for both seniors and juniors under 18 years of age. Mr. Morris will present a "Bolton" bull calf to the man or woman in the adult class with the highest score for judging four cows and four heifers on points, in addition to which the Guernsey Associations will present an electric clipper, a hoof trimmer and a show halter as additional prizes in this class. Mr.
Morris will also present a "Bolton" heifer calf to the junior having the highest score in judging the same four cows and four heifers on points.
In addition to this, the Guernsey Associations will present three other prizes to the juniors.

Luncheon will then be served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Emille Methodist Episcopal Church, after which there will be very interesting addresses by Carl Musser, Peterboro, N. H., secretary of the American Guernsey Breeders' Association. It is expected that most of the prominent Guernsey breeders in Eastern Pennsylvania and Southern New Jersey will be present.

Incidentally, the Guernseys are not the only real interest at Bolton Farms.
Part of the mansion house on this farm was the original farm house of William Penn and is, therefore, of great interest historically. There is also on the farm at the springhouse, probably the largest sycamore tree to be found in this country, measuring more than 27 feet in circumference.

This field day was arranged by committees from the three counties consisting of Miss Caroline Archer, Flying Hill Farm, Reading; Warren F. Whitter, Lonicera Farm, Douglassville; C.
W. Westenberg, Fairview Farm, Cornwells, representing Berks county; William F. Fretz, Fritzlin Farm, Pipersville; Charles Dietrich, Bolton Farm, Emille; Joseph S. Briggs, Yardley, representing Bucks county; I. A.
Cassell, Maple Lawn Farm, Harleys-ville; Walter Hibberd, Jr., Chestnut Hill; and George C. Klander, chairman, Valleywood Farms Penryn, representing Montgomery county.

NOTABLES LOCATING IN BUCKS COUNTY WITHIN RECENT MONTHS ARE NUMEROUS; BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE, INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN

College Professors, Lawyers and Brokers, Authors, Radio Artists, Heads of Huge Business Firms, Are Listed Among Those Choosing Bucks for Home

Some idea of the influx of notables into Bucks County is shown in the following story and list appearing in a recent edition of the Doylestown Daily Intelligencer:

An up-to-date "Whose Who" of new Bucks county residents of the past year or more is being compiled by the news staff of "The Daily Intelligencer," and from time to time, will be published in part in the issues of this newspaper.

Through the co-operation of Bucks county realtors, banking institutions and law offices, who have been responsible for the first, but not complete list of new-comers to the New Hope, Old York Road and Doylestown sections, the first list contains about forty-two names.

Any county in Pennsylvania or any county in the country could well be proud of the influx of nationally and internationally prominent business and professional men and women to Bucks county, all of whom have purchased old houses and have had them restored, or have built new homes.

In the New Hope and Delaware Valley section particularly, long famous for the outstanding landscape artists' colony in the country, there are numerous new residents, many of whom are New York college professors.

A check-up of the real estate offices in Doylestown and the Old York Road and New Hope sections revealed the fact that within the next few weeks, numerous additional new home owners will locate in Bucks county, including some of the most prominent people in the East.

There are many more new residents of Bucks county and it will only be through the continued co-operation of real estate operators and residents of the county, who may send in the names and occupations of new residents, that a complete "Whose Who" can be compiled. Similar information, addressed to "The Intelligencer," will be greatly appreciated.

On the first day's check-up of Bucks county's latest "Whose Who," the writer learned of the following new residents for the first story:

James A. Coulton: Vice president of the Colgate Manufacturing Company, who has purchased and restored an old home off the Windy Bush Road, near New Hope.

Dr. Milton C. DelManzo: Provost of Teachers' College, Columbia University, purchased "Inghamdale," on the Old York Road, near New Hope; this home a year ago won a prize in a national contest conducted by a well known magazine for the restoration of the property.

Dr. Jesse H. Newlon: Has a home in the Solebury township section near New Hope. He is principal of the Lincoln School of Columbia University.

BLACK WINS SIXTH
PITCHING VICTORY

Hulmeville Manager Hurls Team to Victory Against Washington Crossing

FINAL SCORE IS 6 TO 3

HULMEVILLE, July 29.—Manager Howard Black chalked up his sixth straight pitching victory of the Delaware River League here yesterday, beating the Washington Crossing Quails, 6-3, in a closely-fought contest.

The Quails hit Black fairly but in the pinches the speed-ball twirler of the first half champions was invincible and set back the Crossing hitters in fine style. "Ike" Watson and Carlen produced the only extra basehits of the contest which aided the Hulmevilleites in scoring the win.

"Bill" Carroll was the losing hurler, being nicked for ten hits, two each by Leigh, Mellor and Afterbach. Carroll led his team with the stick, getting two out of three trips to the plate.
Carlen was the fielding star for Hulmeville handling five chances errorlessly.

zie, bearded speed merchant from Eddington, drove to victory in the 15-mile yesterday and took the lead in the start and fought off challenge after challenge by Shaw, who started and finished in second place. Chuck Tabor, of Orange, was third. The winner's time was 15.29 2-10ths.

The caution flag was up during four laps beginning with the third when Eddie Staneck, of Caldwell, lost a

WINS 10-DAY TOUR TO YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK AS GUEST OF FIFTEEN BRISTOL MERCHANTS AND COURIER

Interest Was Intense in Contest Which Ran for About Six Weeks — Ballots Cast Right Up Until Closing Hour at Seven o'Clock Yesterday Morning — Successful Contestant Will Leave On August 6th.

Miss Janice M. Muffett, 575 Swain street, was selected "Miss Bristol" in the Bristol merchants "Better Times" contest conducted by 15 merchants in co-operation with the Courier. The contest came to a close Saturday at midnight and the last votes were cast yesterday morning just before seven o'clock when the last ballot box was closed.

Miss Muffett polled a total of 900,000 votes, while her nearest rival, Miss Mary MacAuley polled 714,400, giving Miss Muffett a majority of 185,600.

Miss Muffett entered the contest on the opening day.
The race toward the end of the contest narrowed down to these two, but there was always the threat of a "dark horse" coming to the front as it was generally thought there was a large number of ballots being held out until the final count.

Miss Muffett polled 551,600 votes during the closing hours of the contest.

The official report of the judges follows: Bristol, Pa., July 29, 1935.

Editor, Bristol Courier:
We have completed the counting of the ballots cast in the Bristol Merchants-Courier Yellowstone National Park Tour Contest and we have checked the tabulations and find that Miss Janice M. Muffett is the winner with a total of 900,000 votes.

Attached hereto is a list giving the standing of the contestants.

WM. H. H. FINE,

S. WILSON BLACK,
Judges.

Interest in the contest was intense throughout the campaign and during the closing hours it was at white heat. The ballot boxes were well filled with votes when they were collected Saturday evening.

Four clerks counted the ballots from 10 o'clock Saturday evening until one o'clock Sunday morning. The judges checked the count Sunday morning, requiring nearly three hours to complete the work.

The last ballots deposited in the Courier mail box were for the winner when a friend dropped in 1,700 just before the box was closed.

There were 130 candidates in the contest, one entering during the final hours, Miss Margaret Kentzler, Croydon.

The contest opened June 17th, and closed July 27th.
Miss Muffett is scheduled to leave on August 6th for a 10-day free-of-expense tour to Yellowstone National Park.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

By Courier Staff Member

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol, Jan. 22, 1874. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

The sad news of the drowning of Miss Gertrude Snowden, of Hulmeville, reached this village yesterday and the sad occurrence cast a gloomy feeling over all. She was skating on the Hulmeville dam in company with her brother, when the ice gave way and precipitated them into the water, which at the place was about twelve or fourteen feet deep. A rope was immediately thrown to her and she was drawn out, when she fainted. A large crowd gathered around her when the ice gave way, plunging several into the water, many of whom narrowly escaped the same fate which befell the unfortunate girl, whose body was not again rescued until life had become extinct. Miss Snowden was about seventeen years of age and was universally loved and respected in the neighborhood in which she lived. Mr. Snowden and family receive the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their deep affliction. Mr. George Hibbs in attempting to aid her also broke through, and when he was rescued was with difficulty resuscitated.

Over $22,000 has been subscribed to the capital stock of the Doylestown Improvement Company.

That wooden dwellings so largely predominate in our borough is incident simply as a fact of custom. Our first dwellings, however, did not set the example, as the older structures (some of which still remain), do testify; their immediate successors fell into the adoption of frame houses, from which we of this generation have not emerged. More than twenty years ago one of our citizens sought for and prevailed upon a practical brick-maker, having sufficient means, to visit our borough, and on visiting two or three localities nearby, he pronounced the clay admirable; but in discussing the matter with prominent citizens, he failed to receive their encouragement. The most promising locality tested was half a mile south of Laurel Bend.

Charles Foster, residing near Emmitt, while driving through Newportville last Friday evening, the horse shied, upsetting the sleigh and throwing him out. Mr. Foster held on to the lines with one hand, and was dragged about a hundred yards, when his body struck the telegraph pole in front of Everett's store. The horse ran up the road about a mile, and was stopped. Mr. Foster's injuries, though severe, are not considered serious.

On Thursday night last, David Walton, while getting out of a wagon, near Laurel Bend, placed his hand upon the axle, which gave a short spring forward, throwing Mr. Walton in front of the wheel, which passed over his thigh and one of his hands. He was conveyed home, but strange to say, no bones were broken.

A lively runaway took place yesterday morning. The horse attached to Mr. Williams' milk wagon started on a run on Otter street, turned the corner at Bath, spilled milk in front of Closson's hotel, and continued out Bath street to the farm of J. C. King, when the horse was stopped in its mad career.

The citizens of Newportville have been looking forward to the Summer days when "old Sol" will appear in his heating glory. Last Monday there was a general filling-up of ice-houses and all are seemingly pleased with the fortunate result of the cold snap.

A local institute will be held in Yardleyville in the public school building, commencing on Monday, January 26th, and closing on Friday, the 30th. From the programme furnished by the Superintendent, we learn that specimen drills in grammar, geography, arithmetic, reading, physiology, and other branches will be given by classes from the Dolington, Oxford Valley, Penn Valley, Morrisville, and the Lower Makefield schools. Essays will be read by Nettie Larnie, Jennie Knight, Annie R. Bailey, Sue P. Stackhouse and other teachers. . . . On Tuesday there will be a spelling match for pupils above 12 years of age, and on Thursday another for those under that age. On Friday, W. W. Woodruff will present a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary to the pupil who will spell every one of a hundred familiar words selected by him. On Wednesday afternoon the subject of the needs and value of graded school, the best method of supplying text books and grading teachers' salaries will be discussed. Prof. F. A. Allen and W. W. Woodruff will be present during the week. For the evening lectures besides Messrs. Allen and Woodruff, Charles J. Arms, of Pittsburgh, and Rev. H. W. Warren, of Philadelphia, have been engaged.

Wm. H. Booz has purchased the property on Cedar street, owned and occupied by G. H. Hughes as a dwelling house and bakery, for $2,850.

A. H. Jones, Esq., of this borough, has been admitted to the bar of this county at Doylestown.

THE SNOW LEOPARD by Chris Hawthorne

CHAPTER XVI

Toole shook his head. "I don't intend to arrest Jeff Whipple until I learn more of Sire's game. But I do intend to get the documents and the junk. Then I'll find out who's behind Jeff, in spite of Sire's secrecy."

"How do you intend to work it?"

"I've already hired a suite next to Whipple's. The house man at the Park-Victoria is helping me. Jeff will probably have lunch served in his room, but he won't be able to resist the bright lights of the dining room at night—that's one of his few weak points. When he's downstairs I intend to get into his place with a pass-key. He won't be expecting me. You read that little piece in the paper, didn't you, about me being in Bellevue after a taxi collision?"

"Suppose he sticks to his quarters?"

ST. ANN'S NINE ENDS ITS LOSING STREAK

The losing streak of the St. Ann's A. A. nine in the Bristol Twilight League came to a stop yesterday as the "Saints" with a patched-up line-up scored a close 4-3 victory over the Edgelys A. C. to hand the Edgelyites their second straight loss.

A batter to short by "Rocks" Sabatini enabled Whyno to score from third with the winning run of the fracas in the sixth. Whyno had stolen second after singling and continued to third on a bad throw by Hunter. On Sabatini's roller, Whyno had a good start that it was impossible for a play at the plate.

MORRISVILLE HOOPERS GAIN VALUABLE GROUND

The Morrisville Hoopers gained valuable ground in the second half pennant chase of the Delaware River League by outscoring the Edgely Braves, 13-8, in a free-counting tilt on the Edgely diamond yesterday afternoon.

By virtue of their win, the Hoopers are now but one-half game from the league-leading Braves who played just the reverse of the tilt they exhibited in beating Washington Crossing, Saturday.

Loose playing aided the Morrisville clan immensely in its victory. The Braves were charged with five errors and the fielders made several others drop for safeties which should have been caught. The Edgelyites out-hit the winners, 11-10.

Both teams' starting twirlers were driven from the box early. Camel Breslin was socked from the hill by a barrage of base hits in the fourth when the Hoopers counted six times while the Edgelyites got rid of Hartsough in the second, scoring three runs. Lindsey who relieved Hartsough was credited with the victory, his second in two days.

"Reds" Rafferty was the leading stickler of the contest, getting two doubles and two singles in six trips to the plate. He drove in five runs. Leo Hibbs had two doubles and a single for the losers. Arch and Malmesbury were the fielding stars.

With the evening packed with thrills and excitement from start to finish, 1200 fans witnessed the first amateur boxing and wrestling tournament held in Bristol yesterday in the open air arena in the rear of the newly-built St. Ann's Athletic Association clubhouse, Wood street. Every available seat was taken and the spectators were jammed to every inch of the ground wherever a fan could rest his eyes on the ring.

Eight knock-outs supplied the thrills and hard blows the fans were waiting for. Several were clean knock-outs while on two occasions a towel was thrown in and once the Referee stopped a fight to save a fighter from further punishment. One fighter had to quit because of a cramp in his stomach.

Seventeen bouts were rooted off in quick succession, several bouts were called off because a candidate did not pass the examination prescribed by Dr. George T. Fox. The gladiators were weighed in during the afternoon and all appeared in shape for the glover's tourney.

The wind-up was almost an exact replica of the last meeting of the bout between "Chet" Castor, St. Ann's and "Lenny" Dever, Catholic Boys' Club. This bout was refereed by John "Spud" Murphy, well known boxing officials who refereed several championship bouts. The bout was scheduled for three rounds but came to a finish after fifty seconds of the third round when Dever went down following a volley of lefts and rights in the east corner of the ring. Dever took severe punishment here and flattened out as his body hit the canvas. He was counted out and did not move as Referee Murphy tolled ten.

Up until the final session, Dever seemed to have a slight lead on the St. Ann's glover. This was accomplished in the first canto after Castor had come out of his corner like a lion, rushed Dever to the ropes and then floored him with a right. Referee Murphy counted one and Dever was up, swinging both fists. He opened with a jabbing attack which completely off-set the Italian boy. Several times he swung long rights which stopped the onward slaughters of Castor. Despite the fact that he was floored, Dever rallied enough to gain the first round in the writer's opinion.

The Catholic Boys' Club attachment kept up his jabbing attack on his lighter foe at the beginning of the second round but began to mix it up towards the finish. However, Castor's style was to mix it up and at the finish of the round, Castor had the Dever boys well-tired. There wasn't much to it in the third for Dever in coming out of his corner, failed to employ his steady jab weapon which gave Castor a lead to rush with the result that he cornered the Catholic B. C. fighter and sent him to the floor after a repetition of hard rights and lefts to the jaw.

Representatives of the St. Ann's A. A. club carried away the most victories during the tournament. Five victors of the Purple and Gold colors were victorious while three went down to defeat. Harriman Boxing Club had three wins and four losses. The Travelers took up three wins while one went down to defeat. Ad Roe, the only representative of the Shamrocks, won his fight with a knockout as did Mickey Dates, Trenton. Pondon won one and lost one and the Catholic Boys Club had one loss. Third Ward fared poorly, failing to win a contest.

Three of the four afternoon bouts ended in quick knockouts. In the opener "Eddie" Moore stopped Louie Pizzullo with a right under the heart in the first round. Vince Della knocked out Nickie Tolly also in the first. Joe Tardini handed a lacing to Leonard Fell and took the votes of both judges. N. Caione stopped J. Oriola in the second round. The wrestling bout here was slow and listless and after ten minutes of grappling, Phil Coltre was the loser to Mike Frascella.

Excitement did not start until the evening bouts got under way. Teddie Tosti squared off with Donald Young in the first bout. The fight started fast and furious with Young taking considerable punishment against the ropes in the first. Tosti was the aggressor throughout the first round with Young starting to use a long jab towards the close. Before the bell sounded for the first round, Tosti landed a hard left which staggered Young.

The second saw Young come back strong and shook Tosti with stinging blows to the head but the curly-haired youngster changed his style and instead of coming in with his head up started to weave and bob which baffled the Harriman fighter. Although he appeared to be tiring, Young let loose with a right at the end which reeled Tosti around.

Young started fast in the third but soon a Tosti right found its way to the jaw of the Harriman boy with the result that he slowed up and Tosti pounded him hard. Tosti took the decision of both judges.

It didn't take long for Ad Roe to K.O. Al Marchetti in the second bout. Roe landed about six hard blows and Marchetti went to the canvas quiet.

He arose and was still wobbly when Referee Glordon stopped the bout, awarding it to Roe on a technical knockout after thirty seconds.

Vito Della took some hard blows on the face from Jimmy Gallone and appeared to be out on his feet as the first round ended but he held on and finished the round but Gallone opened his attack fast in the second before Della could get going. The bout was stopped to save Della from further punishment. Gallone was cut on the nose with a short hook in the first.

The Mickey Dates-Frankie Nelson bout had plenty of wrestling mixed in with the slugging. Twice Dates went to the floor on push punches while on one occasion both fighters wrestling on the floor. In the second round, Nelson took a right under the heart which slowed him considerably. He requested the towel to be thrown in at the close of the three-minutes because of a cramp in the stomach.

Dan DiMidio whose face bears a resemblance to Primo Carnera whipped Schemely hard in the first and scored a knock-down at the close. Before the knock-down Schemely had hit DiMidio with a long swinging left which spun the Italian fighter around. However, in the second DiMidio put a pumpkin on the Jewish boy's eye which finished the bout, Schemely being practically out on his feet.

Jupe Zeffries took advantage of opening in the first round to gain the decision over Joe Dougherty despite a rally by the Harriman glover in the last session. In the first, a Zeffries straight arm punch brought the claret flowing from Dougherty's nose and slowed him up for the round. Dougherty's best seemed to be in the fighting. Zeffries was given the first session. The remainder of the bout saw both boys mixing it fast and furious. The judges disagreed, one giving the fight to Zeffries, the other calling it a draw. Referee Glordon's decision went to Zeffries.

Johnny Raccagno and Jimmy Massilla started to slug from the first round of the gong until the final ring. Both boys had telling effects of their blows and Raccagno's shots reddened the side of Massilla's body. Twice Massilla went to the floor but more on slips than punches. Both judges gave their vote to Raccagno.

Happy Hovatter got Referee Gordon's vote after the judges had disagreed in his bout with Gallone. Hovatter landed more solid punches than his adversary while Gallone's blows were glancing off Hovatter's shoulders and head. Gallone telegraphed a hard mule kick punch to Hovatter's side in the first but Hovatter carried the round. In the second, Gallone knocked to lose his head and wanted a knock-out while Hovatter remained cool and collective and blocked easily. Hovatter floored the St. Ann's fighter for a one-count before the round closed. Hovatter was floored at the beginning of the third which was Gallone's best round. Hovatter appeared groggy as he was pounded against the ropes but rallied towards the finish.

The wrestling matches in the evening all ended in falls. Benny Karp received body slam after body slam from Johnny Cole who was much lighter than his foe. Karp was through after he was butted by Cole and given the elbow punch. He was pinned after three minutes.

"Jimmy" Hill had the best of his argument with Kenny Dyer after seven minutes. Before pinning his opponent, Hill had him on the floor but could not get his shoulders to touch the Dyer boys wriggling loose from Hill's weight. In the first three minutes Hill had the scissor and head lock on Dyer but could not pin him. Dyer had a head-lock on Hill later but the younger opponent slipped out of it.

Freddie Bell tired in his match with Kid Sisti and the Trentonian scored the victory after Bell carried the match from the start. It took five minutes for Sisti to win, pinning Bell with an arm lock. On one occasion Bell had both the head-lock and scissors on Sisti but could not win.

Judges of the contests were: Justice of Peace, James Laughlin and Charles Leibra. Referees were Mickey Gordon and John Murphy. Announcing was done by Anthony Russo and Charles Alta.
